

The Forth in Praise Book of 100 Easy Hymns for Organ Beginners

CONTENTS AND SAMPLES

First published in 2013, this hymn book has become Forth in Praise's best-seller, because beginners find it so accessible. Comb-bound with card and plastic covers, it consists of 31 pages in A4 landscape format, with two hymns to each side of a page.

The book contains melody, bass line and chords of 100 hymn melodies in the public domain. See samples below. Words are not included, except for Latin hymns, so users will also need their usual hymn book. Hymn numbers are given for the four main hymnals in use in Scottish Catholic churches: Laudate, Hymns Old and New, Liturgical Hymns Old and New, and the St Andrews Hymnal. Where a hymn tune has more than one set of words, the alternatives are included in the Contents and Index of First Lines.

Alphabetical and Metrical Tune Indexes are also given, and the Contents are arranged roughly as general followed by occasional or seasonal.

Christmas carols and hymns for Lent and Easter are included.
